

Richmond Building Regulation Bylaw 7230 (amended with Bylaw 8542, December 14, 2009)

- 5.13.1 (a) deals with the “Requirement for Registered Professional” and requires the building inspector to agree that the building requires a professional, even if required by the building code. If the building inspector does not agree, the bylaw does not require a registered professional.