

List of Honorary Registrant (Legacy) – Formerly “Honorary Members”

Under the now repealed Architects Act, the AIBC used to bestow “Honorary Membership”, which recognized non-architects who made exceptional contributions to the architectural profession in British Columbia. The conferring of this membership was determined through a nomination process and a vote by Architects AIBC at the Institute’s annual meeting. While non-architects who became honorary members were conferred with rights of voting, no practice rights were granted.

Under the Professional Governance Act (PGA), the category of Honorary Registrant (Legacy) is established solely for continued acknowledgment of the registration of AIBC honorary members who were so registered prior to the transition to the PGA on February 10, 2023. As per AIBC Bylaw 4.24, no admissions to the Honorary Registrant (Legacy) category are permitted by the AIBC under the PGA.

Below is a list of Honorary Registrants (Legacy):

* Denotes the person was an architect at time of award. The title “MAIBC” was replaced with Architect AIBC effective July 2012.
