There are different pathways to becoming registered as an Architect AIBC, depending on your level of education and experience, and whether you are already registered in another jurisdiction outside of B.C. Informed by the Canadian Standards of Practice all pathways demand consistent, rigorous and high standards of education, experience and examination. This matrix can be used to help determine which pathway is best suited for you.

For more information please visit aibc.ca/registration or email registration@aibc.ca.