Composition (as applicable)

Appointment Date

1.0 Mandate:

- The Nominations Review Committee is mandated to assist council in discharging its responsibilities related to council policy:

> 2.2.10 Plan for the succession and diversity of the council and ensuring that members of council have the appropriate competencies for fulfilling their roles and responsibilities.

- The purpose of the committee is to fairly and objectively, evaluate and assess qualified candidates (Architects AIBC) to be recommended to the AIBC membership, for election to the council, in the normal course, at the Annual Meeting. The nominations review process must:
  - Be open and transparent;
  - Allow candidates to be assessed against the needs of the Institute;
  - Ensure a democratic process whereby all candidates nominated as per Bylaw 21.0 will be included on the election ballot, should they so choose to move forward for election to council; and,
  - Support diversity.

2.0 Specific Assignments:

- Liaise with the Governance Committee and Recruitment Task Force to confirm the competencies and recruitment requirements of council, giving full consideration to succession planning for council members, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the Institute, and the skills and expertise needed on council in the future.
• Develop a candidate assessment process to determine the suitability of candidates for council membership, which fairly and objectively evaluates candidates, and which may include the following components:
  o Evaluation criteria, including relevant skills, diversity, competencies, representation, and personal qualities and behavior skills.
  o An evaluation tool to assess each candidate against the criteria.
  o An interview process (as deemed appropriate and early in the process).
  o A feedback mechanism for those candidates not indicated on the council election ballot as having met the criteria by the nominations review committee.

• Review all council candidates nominated by the members, both during and following the annual call for nominations period according to the evaluation process.

• Committee members who are Architect AIBC should not sign a candidate’s nomination form.

• As required, liaise with the council president and the governance committee with regard to the annual councilor self-assessment process, in order to inform the competencies required for the nominations review process.

• Maintain confidentiality in its deliberations and assessment process while maintaining transparency in its process.

• Communicate with AIBC members regarding the Role Call for the member-at-large position on the nominations review committee.

• Communicate to the AIBC members the names of all nominated candidates who choose to seek election to council, and indicate the ones assessed as having met the criteria for election to council.

• On an as-needed basis, recommend to council any candidates to appoint mid-term, should a council member resign before his/her term is up.

• In conjunction with the Recruitment Task Force, ensure that the Institute has a consistent roster of high-quality candidates.

• Annually evaluate the process it follows and the tools used in evaluating candidates with a view to process improvements, transparency and accountability.
3.0 Deliverables:
- A roster of qualified council candidates.
- Documented and transparent evaluation criteria, processes and tools.

4.0 Reporting:
- Inform council and members per sections 5.0 and 6.0 (respectively) of the Guidelines and Procedures for Council Committee, Task Forces and Working Groups
- Keep council updated on the initiative.

5.0 Liaison with Internal and External Groups/Associations:
- Council
- Governance Committee
- Recruitment Task Force
- CEO

6.0 Scheduled Meetings:
- Attendees: Only members of the committee have the right to attend committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the CEO, the Manager of Human Resources, and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when deemed by the committee to be appropriate and necessary.
- When: To be determined by the committee in order to meet its obligations
- Place: AIBC offices and/or, video/teleconferencing

7.0 Quorum:
- A quorum for any meeting of the committee will be the majority of the members of the committee present in person, and/or by video/teleconferencing.

8.0 Amending the Terms of Reference
- The Terms of Reference may be revised by the council upon the recommendation of the committee or CEO or upon a change of members.
